7/23/67

Dear Mr. Huston,

I have been waiting, anxiously, to hear more from you.

If you have any misgivings about the present arrangements, I encourage you to send me what you have, by air, registered, and to get in touch with Mr. William O'Connell, 4175 Stansbury Ave., Sherman Oaks, Calif. I have implicit faith in Bill. His phone is the one I gave you.

Only the silent witness need have apprehensions. Once what he knows or can say is known, he is not ordinarily in jeopardy. It is only when he is silent, when his story is his alone, that he need fear.

Registered mail must be kept under lock and key at all times and a written record must be kept of everyone inside the postal service handling it.

I am looking forward to hearing from you, to receiving what you now have.

Sincerely yours,

Harold Weisberg